

1 government. One of the earliest statements I referred 2 to before is we don't want to wait for the federal govern-
3 ment to do everything for us. I think the time is now.
4 We should move. If we pass this particular amendment,
5 then I think we should consider putting into this 6 Constitution whatever is necessary to implement a wide-
7 spread policy for providing for citizens in our state.

8 I have watched you tinker with the technical 9 aspects of our government. You can get the finest piece 10 of machinery set up that you want to, but if you don't 11 have people behind you and take care of human resources, 12 the rest will go. All we need is the will. We have got 13 the economic and natural resources.

14 Thank you.

15 DELEGATE JAMES: Are you ready for the 16 question?

17 The Chair recognizes Delegate Bamberger.

18 DELEGATE BAMBERGER: Mr. Chairman, I rise to 19 speak against the amendment.

20 I do not believe that a Constitution must 21 express --
